

GRAFTON MARKET REPORT

DATE: 02/02/2021

781 Total Head Yarded

450 Export

331 Veal

Comments: There was a big jump in numbers this week, mainly due to the fortnight break, but also the current strong market. Bullocks and cows were very well represented, with some excellent lines of prime stock on display, showing the signs of the excellent season. The market for all export types was fully firm, with some excellent results being achieved. Younger cattle sold for a mixed result, with some being slightly cheaper and others selling a little dearer. Overall, the market is still very strong.
