

GRAFTON MARKET REPORT

DATE: 01/12/2020

273 Total Head Yarded

120 Export

153 Veal

Comments: Numbers were similar this week, there were some very good cattle represented, along with a fair penning of secondary types. Heavy bullocks sold dearer, mainly due to quality, while cows sold firm to a shade easier. Young cattle with quality sold easier, however, some good prices are still being received for the right article. Ongoing heat and numbers coming forward is putting pressure on all markets. Rainfall is needed to slow supply and give confidence back to restockers.
